Tip-Off Time!

Excitement Builds for the Season Opener

Happy Holidays and Happy New Year! The wait is over, and the court is calling. Community as a Campus's basketball season kicks off on January 28, 2025. Whether you're a player, coach, parent, or fan, there's nothing quite like the excitement of a new season. The scent of freshly polished floors, the sound of the buzzer, and the thrill of competition are here to remind us why we love this game. This season, expect to see incredible growth in our young athletes as they work hard, learn, have fun, and build community. Coaches are eager to guide their teams to success, and fans are ready to cheer louder than ever. Welcome back to basketball, everyone. Let's hit the court and make it count! Stay tuned for the season schedule.
