"From Tip-Off to Trophy: The Playoff Journey Unfolds"

Bri Alvarez

Week 5 of the Community as a Campus Basketball League delivered electrifying game-play, intense matchups, and an exciting scrimmage to close out the week. With playoffs right around the corner, teams are gearing up for the ultimate showdown. Let's dive into the action and see what's ahead! Sabin vs. Erie Boys-Sabin dominated the game with their dynamic offense and lock-down defense, cruising to a commanding 38-14 victory over Erie Boys. Sabin vs. Cameron Girls-A thrilling back-and-forth battle saw Sabin narrowly edge out Cameron in a defensive showdown, securing a 13-12 win. Erie vs. Cameron Girls-Erie showcased their offensive firepower, taking control early and never looking back in a 41-27 victory over Cameron. Rowe vs. Stowe Girls resulted in a forfeit win for Stowe. Barreto vs. Rowe2-Rowe2 was unable to participate, giving Barreto a default win.

Barreto vs. Clemente H.S. (Bonus Game)- To cap off the week, Barreto took on Clemente High School in a thrilling bonus game that had the crowd on their feet. Clemente brought the heat, executing crisp plays and solid teamwork to secure a 53-37 victory. The scrimmage was a great opportunity for Barreto to sharpen their skills before the playoffs.

The playoffs set for March 13th and 14th, teams are preparing for high-stakes matchups that will determine who advances to the final stage. Expect fierce competition as squads give it their all to claim the league's top spot! On March 15, the action intensifies with the Hooping for Humboldt Park Championship Tournament—the ultimate battle for basketball supremacy. The best teams will compete for glory, and only one will emerge as the champion!
