

Nothing But Net! CAAC's Basketball League Brings the Heat in an Electrifying Week

Bri Alvarez

Week 4 of the Community as a Campus Youth Basketball League was packed with thrilling action, intense battles, and standout performances as teams hit the court with energy and determination. Here's a recap of all the excitement from February 24-27, 2025. Barreto vs. Cameron – Barreto came out strong, displaying dominance on both ends of the court to secure an emphatic 48-15 victory over Cameron. Their fast-paced offense and aggressive defense set the tone for an exciting week ahead.

In a nail-biting contest, Stowe vs. Erie Girls- Erie Girls edged out Stowe 16-13 in a defensive showdown. With both teams battling until the final buzzer, Erie's clutch shooting in the closing minutes made the difference. Stowe vs. Barreto Boys – Barreto Boys lit up the scoreboard with a commanding 45-29 victory over Stowe. Their offensive rhythm and teamwork proved too much for Stowe to handle. Sabin vs. Cameron Boys – Sabin put on a stellar performance, controlling the game from start to finish to defeat Cameron Boys 37-15. Their defensive pressure and ability to capitalize on fast breaks were key to their success.

Rowe vs. Rowe2 – In a thrilling inter-squad battle, Rowe2 outlasted Rowe in a tight 37-30 victory. Both teams left it all on the court, but Rowe2 managed to pull ahead in the final minutes with clutch plays. As the season heats up, expect even more competitive matchups, rising stars, and electrifying moments. Stay tuned for Week 5 as teams look to build momentum and fight for a top spot in the standings!
